COMPULSORY PRACTICUM PLACEMENT

This course includes a compulsory practicum component with a total duration of a minimum of 240 hours. This requirement is not negotiable. This means that students must either have a suitable workplace (registered early childhood service) or be matched with a workplace by Australian Careers Business College. Workplaces must be approved by ACBC and evidence of employer agreement to the arrangement must be provided.

The workplace practicum is essential to enable completion of assessment activities and to practise skills learnt online. Part of the assessment for this course is a number of supervisor reports from the workplace.

For students who nominate a 12-month study option, this will require around three days per month in the workplace for the duration of the course. For students who nominate the 18-month option, two days per month in a workplace will be required.

Contact a Careers Advisor for full details of this course including Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL), Credit Transfer. Tuition fees and financing options are available here.

WHAT YOU WILL NEED

- Access to the internet
- Computer Access (word processing, web surfing, downloading forms and templates)
- Access to Google Drive (Google account)
- Email address (for enrolment communication)
- A workplace to complete assessment and practicum activities*
- The ability to attend a workplace for a full three working days per week for the 12-month option and two days per week for the 18-month option.

* If you do not have a suitable workplace (registered childcare service) Australian Careers Business College can match you with one. All workplaces must be approved by Australian Careers Business College.
